

Mallorca International Dance Seminar

2009

THE ISLAND

Mallorca is a natural paradise in Europe which boasts an average of 300 days of sunshine each year. This, combined with the excellent beaches and clear, blue seas, means that the beautiful island is Europe's number one holiday destination. More than 15 million tourists arrive each year.

THE TEACHERS

Each year we invite world class guest teachers to the Mallorca International Dance Seminar. This year we are delighted to announce that Roman Rumiantsev from the Perm State Choreographic Institute in Russia will be giving the ballet and repertoire classes and Ana Eva Cruellas (Madrid) will give contemporary and improvisation classes. There will also be a stretch / strengthening class prior to ballet every morning as well as pointe work and jazz class to round off the busy day.

THE STUDIOS

Pasodos are proud to present the 2009 Mallorca International Dance Seminar in our brand new Dance Centre. With over 200 square metres of studio space there is plenty of room to travel. We also provide fully sprung dance floors with Rosco vinyl linoleum. Photos are available on our website.

TRAVEL

Getting to Mallorca is very easy. It's only 30 minutes flight from Barcelona and there are thousands of charters and direct flights from the main European cities — ryanair, easyjet, aerlingus, air berlin, clickair, bmibaby — to name but a few companies. Contact us directly for help with booking.

ACCOMMODATION

Although Mallorca probably has more hotels per capita than anywhere in Europe it is advisable to book well in advance. Prices vary depending on the level of luxury you would like. We have a list of recommended local hotels as well as some with whom we have negotiated a discount bed and breakfast rate of 364 euro for 14 days, tax included. There is limited accommodation in a local youth hostel from 250 euro for 14 days - advanced booking is recommended.

DATES AND PRICE

The course runs from the 1st until the 14th of July and is aimed at dancers from 16 years upwards. The two week intensive costs 320 euro but if you book before the 1st of June you can avail of the very special discount rate of 285 euro for the two weeks! This includes over 60 hours of class time. Prices for travel, food and accommodation vary and are to be paid separately. We highly recommend that you book your accommodation well in advance.

EXTRAS

There are many wonderful sights to see on the island and all within easy reach of the city of Palma. Excursions will be catered for on demand and need to be paid for separately (usually between 10 and 20 euro). The beach is within walking distance of our studios and with sunshine practically guaranteed in July there is plenty of time to work on your tan while you visit us!
